CCUF Status and Update

The CCUF is an unincorporated non-profit organization. The CCUF mission is to provide a voice and communications channel between the CC community and the CC organizational committees, CC evaluation schemes, and policy makers. A membership of the CCUF is currently over 860 individuals. Most of these people work in the technical communities developing the specifications (e.g. Protection Profiles) based on ISO/IEC 15408 and ISO/IEC 18045.
